Re: Application to Establish an Omnibus Account

Dear Mr. Carroll:

We have received your letter dated May 19, 2004, in which you request on behalf of Penson Financial Services, Inc. ("Applicant"), that an omnibus account be designated as a good control location for purposes of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (17 CFR 240.15c3-3).

I understand the following facts to be pertinent to the Applicant's request. On or about June 5, 2004, the Applicant began clearing the customer accounts of Online Brokerage Services, which currently clear its customer accounts through Computer Clearing Services ("Delivering Firm"). Each account will become established on the books and records of the Applicant with corresponding securities positions being recorded as "short" in an omnibus account at the Delivering Firm. The positions will be transferred from the Delivering Firm to the Applicant, and the omnibus account gradually will be reduced and eliminated.

Under the circumstances set forth above and to facilitate the prompt and orderly transfer of accounts, the Division of Market Regulation will deem the omnibus account at the Delivering Firm to be a control location adequate for the protection of customer securities for purposes of Rule 15c3-3, provided that the following criteria are satisfied:

- (1) the books and records of the Applicant reflect the customer securities positions and money balances previously held by the Delivering Firm;
- (2) the books and records of the Applicant reflect that the customer securities not yet transferred to it are "located" in the omnibus account at the Delivering Firm;

- (3) the Applicant assumes the responsibility to clear all transactions in the customer accounts being transferred; and
- (4) the Delivering Firm provides the Applicant with written assurance that (i) for purposes of Rule 15c3-3 it will treat the omnibus account as a customer account and the customer securities maintained in the omnibus account as fully-paid securities, and (ii) it will promptly deliver the securities in the omnibus account to the Applicant.

The omnibus account that has been designated as a control location will retain such designation only for a period of thirty business days from the date it was entered on the Applicant's books and records. At the expiration of thirty business days, the customer securities which have not been delivered to the Applicant will no longer be deemed to be within the Applicant's possession or control. When the omnibus account ceases to be a control location, the Applicant must include the market value of all customer securities not yet delivered to it in its Reserve Formula computation (17 CFR 240.15c3-3a) as a "failed to receive" credit item, whether or not it has any money credits related to the particular securities, and must initiate action to buy-in the securities not yet delivered.

It should be noted that the above requirements for having an omnibus account designated as a control location are applicable only to securities which the Applicant desires to treat as being in its control by use of the omnibus account. For all other securities, the Applicant will have to take other appropriate action to comply with the possession or control requirement of Rule 15c3-3.

Thomas K. McGowan
Assistant Director

Dear Mr. McGowan:

Penson Financial Services, Inc. ("Penson") is a broker dealer registered with the NASD and SEC. Penson is self-clearing, and engaged in the business of clearing transactions for other broker dealers. Penson has signed a fully disclosed clearing agreement with Online Brokerage Services ("Correspondent"), and will be converting Correspondent from Computer Clearing Services ("CCLS") to Penson via tape transfer over the weekend of June 5, 2004. Penson intends to post all money and stock balances to the Correspondent client accounts versus an omnibus account, and Computer Clearing Services (CCLS) intends to deliver off all of the Correspondent balances versus an omnibus account.

In order to process this conversion and allow for the orderly receipt and delivery of Correspondent client balances and positions, we are requesting an exemption from the SEC customer protection rules such that we may treat the above referenced omnibus account as a control location for thirty business days from the date it is entered on Penson's books and records.

In accordance with the requirements of SEC Rule 15c3-3, the books and records of Penson will reflect customer securities positions and money balances previously held by CCLS and will likewise reflect that customer securities not yet transferred to it are located in the omnibus account at CCLS. In this regard, Penson assumes the responsibility to clear all transactions in the customer accounts being transferred. CCLS has provided Penson with written assurance that (i) for purposes of Rule 15c3-3, it will treat the omnibus account as a customer account and the customer securities maintained in the omnibus account as fully-paid securities; and (ii) it will promptly deliver the securities to Penson.

At the end of the thirty-day period, we will cross any remaining positions to "fail," and will initiate action to buy-in those securities not yet delivered.

Please call me at (214) 765-1119 if you have any questions or need further information. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Jamie Carroll
